HE SHOT THREE MEN

And Then the Negro Desperado was Caught and Jailed.

A Sensational Tragedy On a Train In Arkansas Last Evening.

A LYNCHING WAS INEVITABLE

Oseolin, Ark., Sept. 8.—At a late hour yesterday afternoon a tragedy was enacted on a train between this city and Lenoira.

Three prominent and highly respected men are lying wounded in the hospital at this place. One is dying and another is believed to be fatally shot.

The shooting occurred at a station on the Duckerville, Lenoira and Great Northern railroad, eight miles south of Oseolin. A large crowd of negroes boarded the train at this point. Among them were half a dozen negro women. The seating capacity of the negro coach was overtaxed. There were no seats for the women.

"Baldy" Taylor, a negro who enjoys a reputation among his race as a desperate and dangerous man, volunteered to find seats for the women. "Follow me," he said, "I'll get seats for you."

Taylor then led the way into the coach reserved for white people.

"Here's enough seats for us all," said the negro insolently.

The women proceeded to occupy seats in the white coach. Opposite them were H. G. Fisher, E. R. Hume and E. W. Schulte.

"Are you not in the wrong pew?" inquired Fisher of the negro.

The ire of the desperate negro was aroused.

"White man, don't you bother me," responded Taylor threateningly, half rising from his seat. Suddenly he flashed a Colt revolver of 44 caliber and shot Fisher.

Taylor then turned his weapon upon E. R. Hume. The latter by this time had his own weapon out and two shots rang out simultaneously. Hume sank to the floor of the car mortally wounded. His bullet hit and slightly wounded Taylor, who then shot E. W. Schulte.

Taylor will be lynched.

BATTLE ON THE HIGHWAY.

FOUGHT BY NEIGHBORS IN INDIAN TERRITORY.

Durant, I. T., Sept. 8.—A bloody battle was fought about ten miles east of here between Rev. W. F. Whaley and his two sons, Alf and Ernest, on one side, and J. H. and J. A. Richardson and their brother-in-law, Mr. Wattenberger, on the other, in which the elder Whaley was killed and Alf, his son, had both arms torn to pieces, and J. A. Richardson received a severe flesh wound in the thigh. There had been trouble between the Whaleys and Richardsons for the past few months, and yesterday the two parties met on the highway while returning home from Durant with the above results. Officers went out from here this morning and brought in all the survivors of the battle who were able to be moved.

SUICIDE SUSPECTED.

Dulow, W. Va., Sept. 8.—Rev. Morris Wilson, who yesterday morning killed his wife and escaped to the woodlands, is yet at large. The belief of many is that the aged parson has committed suicide and searching parties are scouring the woodlands in the vicinity of his home at Genoa.

A SURPRISE SPRUNG

An Outside Lawyer Wants Spot Polk to be Tried for Murder.

Made a Motion for a New Trial—Says a Man Can't Plead Guilty to Murder.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COURT

A surprise was sprung in circuit court this morning when Attorney Jesse B. Moss filed a motion and reasons for a new trial in the Spot Polk murder case. Polk, on the advice of his attorneys, Campbell and Campbell, pleaded guilty to wilful murder Saturday on condition that he be given a life sentence. He was given a life sentence and this morning Attorney Moss, who was not one of Polk's attorneys, filed the motion, which had not yet been acted on.

This action on part of Attorney Moss was voluntary and independent, and it is supposed is in the interest of Lonnie Fugna, the negro charged with complicity in the murder. There is considerable speculation as to what will be done with Fugna, the principal having pleaded guilty to save his neck.

Attorney Moss claims that the verdict in Polk's case was against the laws of the state, and that there were errors both in the selection and the empaneling of the jury, and also in the instructions to the jury. With these reasons he hopes to secure a new trial for the murderer, and does it, he says, because he thinks it is right, and holds that no man can plead guilty to the charge of wilful murder, and that he "can show you the law."

The following petit jurors were this morning excused:

Messrs. George T. Moss, John Rogers, J. R. Waltman, Ed Willett, E. E. Smith, J. W. Stone and Nathan Kahn, and the following substituted: Messrs. J. A. Banor, J. Wood, J. W. Bradshaw, T. J. Council, L. H. Quarrels, John Householder and P. W. Reeves.

In the case of W. V. Eaton against Wash Block the attorney for the defense filed a report and was allowed $5.

In the case of E. C. Randolph, administrator, against J. W. Hart, J. H. Moss was appointed guardian ad litem for Reuben P. Hart.

The case against Irene Clements was this morning dismissed after it had been before the court for several terms without a hearing. The Clements woman was charged with the theft of several hundred dollars from J. Frank Sanderson of Mayfield while Sanderson was partially intoxicated. It is alleged, and Sanderson, not knowing definitely how he was relieved of the coin, brought charges against the woman, who was arrested and given a preliminary hearing in the police court. She was held over, but the case was never tried and for the lack of evidence was ordered dismissed today.

At press time the false swearing case against Riley Gay, colored, was given to the jury.

The nuisance case against the I. C. railroad was re-set for the 13th day.

Ed Black was divorced from his wife, Wash Black.

T. J. Howmen filed a suit for divorce against his wife, Birdie Bowman, alleging abandonment.

Cornelia Myers filed a suit for divorce against her husband, Henry Myers, alleging abandonment.

COULD NOT AGREE

Prospects for a Filtration Plant in Paducah are now Rather Slim.

The Water Company Cannot Agree to the Terms Proposed by the Committee.

MATTER NOW IN STATU QUO

The city's chances of securing a filtration plant to clarify and purify the water in Paducah seem to be rather slim at present. The meeting of the committee appointed recently by the general council to confer with Supt. Muscoe Burnett of the Paducah Water Co. did not result satisfactorily.

The committee, it is understood, decided to submit a report to the council recommending that the city release its option on the water plant on condition that the company put in a filtration plant and reduce the rental on fire hydrants from $40 to $25 a year.

This would mean a reduction to the city of $50,000 on the part of the water company for the remainder of the life of its franchise.

The water company, it is understood, offered to put in the plant and make a reduction in hydrant rental amounting to $28,000 for the remainder of the franchise, but the committee rejected it.

Its ultimatum was that the city make the above proposition, which if the municipal board ratify means that the water company will reject the proposition and there will be no more to the effort to secure the filtration plant. The general council will probably have to pass on the matter, however, before any proposition is made to the water company, and it may not ratify, the action of the committee.

GUNBOAT LOST.

COMPLICATIONS MAY ARISE FROM HAYTIAN SITUATION.

Cape Haytien, Sept. 8.—The gunboat Oreste-Pierrot, which was in the service of the Firminist party, has been sunk at the entrance to the harbor of Gonaves by the German gunboat Panther. Details of the occurrence are lacking. The crew of the Oreste-Pierrot left her before she went down.

PRESIDENT IS THERE

He Was Elected an Honorary Member of the Locomotive Firemen.

Desperadoes of Hancock County are Killed and Captured in West Virginia.

ANOTHER MAN AFTER OFFICE

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT THERE.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 8.—President Roosevelt was today elected an honorary member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and attended an executive session this morning. Walking from the hotel to the auditorium, a distance of a few blocks, he was escorted by the grand master, sergeant and a committee of the Brotherhood and a detachment of troop B, state guards.

DESPERADOES BITE DUST.

Rogersville, Tenn., Sept. 8.—Jim Wright and John Templeton, noted Hancock county desperadoes, were killed and Wright's son was captured by a posse of twenty-five men headed by Joe Moss, of Gate City, Va., this morning early.

ANNOUNCES FOR OFFICE.

Lexington, Sept. 8.—Tobias Gibson, at one time a representative in the state legislature, has announced for the nomination for the office of commissioner of agriculture. He is a prominent attorney and farmer of this county, and is a brother of the late Senator Randall Gibson, of Louisiana.

TRIAL BEGINS TODAY.

Vincennes, Sept. 8.—This afternoon the trial of Florence Hansley, aged 29, was begun before Judge Haberson, and will be the greatest known in the history of Lewis county.

A PREACHER ON SNAKES.

Fulton, Sept. 8.—Hundreds of people listened to Rev. E. B. Ramsey deliver his great temperance address, "Snakes," last night.

But two weeks of the campaign now remains and matters are getting very lively. The leaders of both sides are working like beavers, the saloon advocates being very quiet as to their intentions.

Mrs. R. T. Lightfoot will this afternoon return from California.

BACK TO THEIR BOOKS

The Public Schools Opened This Morning With a Rush.

Little Will Be Done in Any of the Rooms at the Sessions Today.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE

The Paducah public schools opened this morning for the fall session with a rush, and by eight o'clock all the school yards were packed with anxious pupils awaiting the opening of the doors to welcome them back to their books.

Superintendent Hatfield is the busiest man in the city today, and from early this morning until press time his office was filled with mothers and fathers and their children who were waiting their turn to be examined for entrance cards, having stopped or been to fill to attend school and finish the course last term.

The doors of the schools opened this morning at 8 o'clock, and after the teachers had entered the attending pupils and had examined the cards, the schools were dismissed for the morning in order that the pupils procure their books. At 1:15, the regular time, the schools were opened again and dismissed at recess for the day.

Tomorrow morning the teachers will begin the regular work, and the fall school term will have commenced in earnest. There are several now members in the High school who were not regularly promoted, and who have lately removed here from other cities and it is thought that several tuition pupils will also be added, not only to the High school, but also to the lower grades.

Miss Maude Grigsby, the music supervisor, will this year teach in the High school, the lower grades in music having advanced sufficiently far in their studies in this branch to take the higher courses. This will necessitate the immediate removal of a piano to the building, and the board will be asked to do this at once. The next meeting of the board is on the first Tuesday in the next month, but it is thought that enough outside and urgent business will arise to necessitate the calling of a special session of the board before that time.

Mr. Leroy Lightfoot, formerly of Henderson, a nephew of Judge R. T. Lightfoot, has accepted a position in Bethel college at Russellville, Ky., and will leave within the week to take charge of his new duties. Mr. Lightfoot will teach music, especially the mandolin and violin. He is an excellent musician, and will no doubt make a success as a teacher. He had charge of the Y. M. C. A. mandolin and guitar club in Henderson and made a great success of it. An attempt to organize such a club was made here, but with little success. Mr. Lightfoot has made many friends here who will wish him success in his new position.

The Lutheran St. Paul's school opened this morning with an enrollment of 55 pupils, of whom about 22 are newly gained scholars. Prof. Theo. Henkel from St. Louis, where he had taught successfully for three years, is the instructor.

Mr. Thomas Quigley returned to Lexington, Va., this morning to re-enter the Virginia Military Institute.

Mr. Roscoe Reed left this morning for Oxford, O., to enter school for a term of four years.

Mr. John Miller and Mr. Ewin Gilson went to Danville this morning to enter school.

SAM JONES COMING

He Will Probably be Here From October 5th to 15th.

Committee on Arrangements Appointed By Ministerial Association.

OTHER NEWS OF THE CHURCH

The Ministerial Association met this morning at the usual hour, with a better attendance than usual. A number of subjects were discussed, and a letter was read from Rev. Sam Jones, the evangelist, stating that he could come to Paducah between the dates October 5 and 15. These dates will be accepted, and a committee on arrangements to secure a place for holding the meeting and make other preparations was appointed, and consists of Revs. Perryman, of the Baptist; Reid, of the Cumberland Presbyterian and Irion, of the Trimble street Methodist.

It is understood that steps will be taken shortly to organize a citizens' league in Paducah, but it may be deferred until after Sam Jones' visit.

The committee scorned the J. W. Farmer tobacco warehouse on Broadway near Tenth street this afternoon, which insures the coming of Rev. Jones on or about the date named.

At the First Baptist church Rev. G. M. McNeilly occupied the pulpit in the morning. His subject was "Bringing Back the King," and the sermon was a very earnest and spiritual one. Mr. McNeilly is a promising young theologian from Bethel college, Russellville, Ky., who formerly lived in Paducah, and has been spending his vacation here as Rev. G. W. Perryman's assistant. He has done some fine work this summer, especially in revival meetings and Sunday school work in Rowlandtown, and has acceptably filled the First Baptist pulpit during Mr. Perryman's vacation. He returned this morning to Russellville to resume his college work for another year.

Dr. G. W. Briggs will deliver his notable lecture, "The Gift on the Gingerbread," at the Broadway Methodist lecture room this evening. The admission is free, but a collection will be taken for charitable purposes. There will, also, be a musical program rendered. Miss Addie Miller will sing and Miss Edna Eedes will give an instrumental solo.

The Friendship Baptist church at Lone Oak, near the city on the Broadway road, was dedicated yesterday morning, a large crowd being present. Rev. G. W. Perryman, of the First Baptist church, assisted by the pastor, Rev. T. B. Rouse, conducted the ceremonies. The services were very impressive.

The corner stone of the First Baptist church of Fulton will be laid tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, the principal address to be made by Dr. J. N. Hall, of that place. Ministers from a number of surrounding cities are expected to attend.

President Milton Elliott of West Kentucky college, at Mayfield, preached at the Tenth street Christian church yesterday, the pastor, Rev. W. T. Boaz, being ill. President Elliott is an able man and has spoken here before.

Rev. G. W. Banks returned on Saturday from Bandana, where he has been assisting the pastor, Rev. W. D. Pickens in a revival service, and filled his pulpit at Third street Methodist.

HE DIDN'T UNDERSTAND.

SO HE WENT AND BOUGHT HIM A DICTIONARY TO FIND OUT.

A true story on one of Armour's traveling men in this territory has created a great deal of amusement among the drummers. He was a new man, and was not onto his job. He started out of Paducah on one of his trips, and while in a neighboring town received a dispatch from his home.

It seems meat had gone up half a cent a pound, and the dispatch was from the company notifying him so he could govern himself accordingly.

The company transmits all such orders in cipher, and to the uninitiated one of those cipher messages is about the most unintelligible things imaginable. They are made up of the most outlandish words and syllables that can be coupled together, and unfortunately the new man had never seen one before.

He read it and re-read it, but he couldn't get any sense out of it. Finally he decided he would get a dictionary and see if it wouldn't shed some light on the mystery. He called at several places, but couldn't find a single dictionary among his friends, so he went to the new dealers and bought one. The only word in his telegram that he could find in the dictionary meant "to use insulting, abusive language," and although he couldn't make out what the remainder meant, he came to the conclusion that he had offended the house, and was going to get fired.

Hurriedly sending in a dispatch to hold up judgment until he could explain, he took the first train to Paducah, and when he got here and reported at the local headquarters, was explained the merits of the secret cipher, and provided with a code book, with which the company had previously neglected to provide him. He's all right now, but his friends have a great deal of fun out of him over the joke.

TALK OF A NEW DISPATCHER.

It is understood that Mr. O. A. Young, chief dispatcher of the Illinois Central at Fulton, will in a few days be succeeded by Mr. James Frisler, now with the M. and O. at Jackson, Tenn.

FIRE IN A BREWERY.

TWO FIREMEN SEVERELY INJURED BY A FALLING WALL.

Cincinnati, Sept. 8.—Fire broke out in some mysterious manner on the third floor of the plant of the Independent Brewery company, at Canal and Walnut streets, and the plant was destroyed. Firemen Charles Jennings and Charles Hollis were caught under a falling wall and were severely injured, Jennings probably fatally.

The loss is estimated at $100,000, with insurance covering it.

LETTER CARRIERS' ELECTION.

SYRACUSE SELECTED AS THEIR NEXT MEETING PLACE.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 8.—The National Association of Letter Carriers selected Syracuse, N. Y., as the next place of meeting and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, J. O. Keller, Cleveland; vice president, A. O. McFarland, Des Moines; secretary, E. J. Cantwell, Brooklyn; treasurer, G. W. Butterfield, Bay City, Mich. Executive board—David White, Boston; Edward J. Gainer, Muncie, Ind.; M. A. Fitzgerald, New York; Edward Turner, Chattanooga, Tenn.; S. F. Stevens, San Francisco. Constitution and law committee—Isaac Schenkin, Pittsburgh; Adolph Wagner, Manchester, N. H.; W. H. Gees, Baltimore; T. B. White, Waco, Tex.; U. V. Compton, Toledo, O.

Several alterations were voted in the constitution and general laws of the Letter Carriers' Mutual Benefit association, including the substitution of dues at the rate of 6 cents a month instead of the former per capita tax of 50 cents a year. The minimum age of eligibility, 21 years, was also abolished. After some argument a motion was adopted providing that benefits may be made payable to an affianced wife and children of parents of legal adoption, where a bank or corporation may be appointed to hold such benefits in trust for the beneficiaries. No benefit, however, may be disposed of by will or assigned to any creditor for the payment of any debt. Resolutions in commemoration of the late Joshua Richardson of Baltimore were adopted.

BADLY WRECKED.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL ENGINES BROUGHT HERE TODAY.

Engines Nos. 292 and 1574, wrecked last week at Major treaty, on the Henderson division of the I. C., were brought to the city Saturday night for repairs. From general appearances the engines will have to be rebuilt and the damage on the big machines will be great. Both are stripped of their cabs and are smashed in the heads. The boilers have been jammed and the frames considerably sprung. As soon as the shells are vacant in the shops the engines will be run in for repairs.

CASE WAS CONTINUED.

The case against R. M. Potts of Fulton for killing Bill Dooley, a negro, several months ago, came up at Hickman Saturday and was suddenly continued until December, it is alleged because the defendant was not forthcoming with his lawyer's fee. The jury had been called and everything was in readiness for the trial. Geo. Arnn and Jim Pate, for horse stealing, were sentenced for four years each.

DEATH AT MAYFIELD.

Mr. John M. Stewart, aged 82 years, died at his home on Tenth street in Mayfield Saturday from a fall received several months ago, and old age. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Ada Hobson and Mrs. Belle Curlew, the latter of California. The funeral took place yesterday.

Dr. Robert Slevers of Louisville, well known in Paducah, and who has just returned from the Philippines, has been ordered for duty to Fort Harrison, Mont.

MAINE ELECTION.

A GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND THE LEGISLATURE BEING CHOSEN.

Bangor, Me., September 8.—Maine is today holding an election for governor, four members of congress, members of the legislature and county officers. The campaign has not been especially active, although the Republicans have held about 250 meetings, of which fifty were addressed by prominent speakers from out of the state, eighteen in number. Little political literature has been circulated by either party. The Democrats have done more work in that line than have the Republicans, although they have held few meetings. Chairman Simpson of the Republican state committee expresses himself as well satisfied with the prospects for his party in the election, and predicts that the Republican plurality will range from 16,000 to 17,000.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Turkey for Thanksgiving dinner are going to be a luxury, both on account of scarcity and price. This conclusion is reached by buyers who have made a canvass of the country districts, says the Tribune.

It is estimated the turkey crop will be one-half smaller than last year, and that prices on the Chicago market around Thanksgiving time, when the fowl is most in demand, will be about two cents a pound higher than a year ago.

DRIVEN AWAY.

SORROWFUL STORY TOLD BY A SMALL BOY.

A small boy, apparently about twelve years of age, was hanging about the Illinois Central passenger depot this morning, and when questioned by the police, who thought he had run away from home, said that he had not run away, but had been run away by his mother. He said that his name was Taylor Collins, and that his home is in Clarksville, Tenn., and that several days ago he was driven away by his mother and had since been roaming about the country. He had not been in Paducah long, he claimed, and was then awaiting a train to take him to Memphis. He was dressed in rags, but seemed perfectly satisfied with his condition and talked freely about himself. The officers did not arrest him but let him go his way.

STATE GUARD STRENGTH.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 8.—Adjutant General Murray has completed his report to the assistant adjutant general at Washington showing the strength of the state guard. The grand total is 1,927 men, divided as follows: Second infantry, 722; Third infantry, 806; artillery, 182; unassigned companies, 194. Hospital corps, 21. Three Gatling guns, 4 Hotchkiss rapid-fire guns, 45-calibre Springfield and 30-calibre Winchester rifles compose the arms.

JAVANESE METHOD OF INDUCING SLEEP.

Dr. Steiner observed in Java a method employed to induce sleep. It consists in compressing the carotid arteries. The operator sits on the ground behind the patient whose neck he seizes with both hands. The index and middle fingers are then pushed forward into the carotids which are compressed toward the spine. The patient's respiration becomes more rapid and more profound and his head relaxes backward. The method is absolutely harmless, anaesthesia is rapidly obtained and the patient wakes promptly with no symptoms of nausea or malaise. Dr. Steiner declares the method to be well known in Java, where it is used to relieve headache, sleeplessness, etc., and points out the fact that the carotid artery was known to the ancients as arteria soporifera, and that its name in modern Russian is "artery of sleep." He does not seem to know that the method is widely practiced in India. Kipling's Kim, for example, is put to sleep by a process of the sort. Dr. Steiner experimented upon thirty Japanese and was successful in all but five cases. He sat in front of the patient placing his right hand on the left, his left hand on the right side of the patient's neck. When the ends of his fingers met at the back of the neck he placed his thumbs back of and a little below the angles of the lower jaw. The beating of the carotid was felt, and then a moderate pressure towards the spine was applied. The loss of consciousness was complete and, in one case, an abscess was lanced without sensation on the patient's part.

AN ILLINOIS CENTRAL
FAST TRAIN.
The Illinois Central will make material changes in its time from St. Louis to the South. Effective Sunday, September 14, a new train will be put in service, leaving St. Louis daily at 1:30 p. m., which will arrive in Memphis at 10:40 p. m. and New Orleans 9:35 a. m. the next morning. The time of this train south bound will be twenty hours and five minutes on route from St. Louis to New Orleans, which is the quickest time that has ever been made between those points for regular schedule.

NEW ASSISTANT.

MR. J. F. CUMMINGS ARRIVES TO TAKE A POSITION WITH THE PRUDENTIAL.

Mr. J. F. Cummings, of Owensboro, arrived yesterday, and this morning took the position of assistant superintendent of the Prudential Insurance company for this district, succeeding Mr. George Allen. Mr. Cummings is a young man of great ability in the insurance line, and in a list of two hundred of the best agents the company has, he ranks eighth, which means that there are only seven whose records are higher than his. He will doubtless maintain that excellent showing in Paducah.

DIVER PAINFULLY HURT.

Diver John Patrick, in diving for some logs eight miles above the city in Tennessee river Saturday afternoon, descended on a water-logged tree and was painfully hurt by one of the limbs throwing him against some logs. He was pulled up and brought to the city, and it was found one rib was broken and another fractured.

DEATH IN METROPOLIS.

Mr. August Rehmeyer, a well known citizen of Metropolis, died at his home there after a several months' illness. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

Parents' Responsibility Great

It is the right of every child to be well born, and to the parents it must look for health and happiness. How inconceivably great is the parents' responsibility, and how important that no taint of disease is left in the blood to be transmitted to the helpless child, entailing the most pitiable suffering, and marking its little body with offensive sores and eruptions, catarrh of the nose and throat, weak eyes, glandular swellings, brittle bones, white swelling and deformity.

How can parents look upon such little sufferers and not reproach themselves for bringing so much misery into the world? If you have any disease lurking in your system, how can you expect well developed, healthy children? Cleanse your own blood and build up your health, and you have not only enlarged your capacity for the enjoyment of the pleasures of life, but have discharged a duty all parents owe to posterity, and made mankind healthier and happier.

There is no remedy that so surely reaches deep-seated, stubborn blood troubles as S. S. S. It searches out even hereditary poisons, and removes every taint from the blood, and builds up the general health. If weaklings are growing up around you, right the wrong by putting them on a course of S. S. S. at once. It is a purely vegetable medicine, harmless in its effects, and can be taken by both old and young without fear of any bad results.

Write us about your case, and let our physicians advise and help you. This will cost you nothing, and we will also send our book on blood and skin diseases.

PROMINENT YOUNG PEOPLE OF EDDYVILLE SURPRISED THEIR FRIENDS.

Mr. Thomas H. Griffin and Miss Anna L. De Graffenreid, of Eddyville, Lyon county, were married at Metropolis Saturday afternoon at the State hotel by Justice Thomas Liggett. They were accompanied by Mr. G. T. Hill and Miss Dora De Graffenreid, of Eddyville.

They are prominent young people, the groom being a well known traveling man and the bride a daughter of a former Confederate soldier and steamboat captain. They were in the city yesterday en route home.

NOW ONE CLUB.

THE RAILROAD GUN CLUB ABANDONED BY THE PADUCAH GUN CLUB.

The railroad gun club, organized several months ago in Paducah, has become a part of the Paducah Gun club by mutual consent of the members of both clubs. The invitation was extended the railroad boys some time ago. They have been shooting together, and much of the success of the recent tournament was due to their cooperation.

The railroad club moved its traps to the Paducah Gun club grounds in La Belle park before the tournament, and will now allow them to remain, and both clubs will shoot at the park, the railroad club to abandon its own grounds near the passenger depot. The officers of the Paducah Gun club will be the officers of the two clubs as consolidated. A shoot of the railroad club will be held this afternoon.

The steamer Leo, of Bookport, passed up yesterday into the Tennessee.

The Dick Fowler cleared on time this morning for Cairo with a good trip.

Live stock will soon be wading across the upper Ohio if it doesn't rain.

The Charleston has gone up from Joppy and is ready to go up the Tennessee again tomorrow.

The Wash Henshel passed up Saturday for barges and passed down again last night en route south.

The City Hull, a small gasoline boat, is off the docks, where she had been undergoing slight repairs.

There are five towboats at Pittsburg with broken shafts—John A. Wood, Iron Age, Ironsides, Jim Moren and George W. Thomas.

The Maude Kilgore arrived this morning from Joppy, where she had gone to unload ties, and leaves tomorrow morning for Tennessee river.

The Avalon is a good low water boat and will make friends in the Evansville and Louisville trade. The Evansville Packet company has just chartered the "Ivy blue," as the coons call her.

Beginning tomorrow the Leo Line will run three packets to the St. Louis-Memphis trade. A boat will depart from St. Louis every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon. Captain Fitzgerald, who has been forced to stop off the past two weeks, owing to illness, will command the Peters Leo. Captain Lightner will remain on the Stacker Lee and Captain Woodward, who has been on the Peters Leo during Captain Fitzgerald's illness, will take command of the Ites Lee.

SUMMARY OF THE

TWELFTH CENSUS.

The total population, including Alaska and Hawaiian Islands, was 76,808,387. This comprises: First, the 75,477,467 residents of the United States proper; second, the 91,294 military, naval and civil employees serving abroad or at sea; third, the 63,593 residents of Alaska; fourth, the 154,001 residents of the Hawaiian Islands; fifth, the 125,043 Indians not taxed and 392,062 other residents in the Indian Territory. There are, besides, some 7,000,000 or 8,000,000 people in the Philippine Islands; 953,243 in Porto Rico; about 9,000 in American Samoa—or in all, about 85,000,000 persons.

WILL HAVE A NEW FACTORY.

The Flournoy Tobacco company's factory at Second and Jefferson streets has grown too small for the rapidly increasing business and it has bought four acres of land on North Twelfth street off the Cairo road, and will build a two story brick factory at once. The company will then employ about fifty men instead of between twenty-five and thirty.

Captain J. R. Smith has gone to Dana, Ind., to visit his brother.

IS A HOLY WAR POSSIBLE?

Catholic and English newspapers have been much exercised of late over the very evident desire of Italy to acquire a footing on the southern shore of the Mediterranean by seizing Tripoli. The general opinion is that the result of such an aggression would be the re-opening of the entire Eastern question, but in some quarters there exists a curious and, perhaps, not altogether unjustified apprehension that the Italian policy would produce in Africa and elsewhere a holy war worse by far than that which in the eighties swept the Soudanese provinces temporarily out of touch with civilization. It is a mistake to believe that Islamism is hopelessly impotent as a factor in world politics. In Africa, especially in the Mediterranean lands, it is particularly strong, and is growing stronger daily as the ranks of the faithful increase numerically. Various centers of Mussulman organization are always active in Northern Africa, their object being to encourage the natives in the practice of warlike exercises and to prepare them for a conflict with the forces of Christendom. Of course, the idea of a general holy war is in a great measure a figment of Mahometan fanaticism and of European imagination, but the existence of a belief in its probability, or rather its inevitability, indicates a condition of unrest which the powers of Europe, outside of Italy, are apparently unwilling to aggravate.

Ever since her disastrous Abyssinian expedition Italy has been endeavoring to redeem her lost military prestige. Many of her politicians and most of her newspapers have found the opportunity in the differences which seem to them to afford warrant for the occupation of Tripolitan territory by Italian troops and the blockade of Tripolitan ports by Italian ships. They are deluding themselves with the idea that the native population of Tripoli would welcome any foreign interference which promises them a release from the burdens of Turkish rule, but they forget that to the Tripolitans the yoke of an unbeliever would be a thousand times more hateful than the domination of the Turk. The danger involved in the present attitude of Italy is not one to be lightly risked. That attitude might conceivably precipitate a catastrophe which would affect every European nation holding territory in Africa.—New York Sun.

TOWNSHIP HALL DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Carbondale, Ill., Sept. 8.—The township hall in this city was destroyed by fire. The building was formerly the old Christian church. The loss is nearly entirely covered by insurance, except the destruction of the township's records.

Fidgety

people are lacking in nervous strength. The weak, care-worn, melancholy, headachy, and low-spirited men and women are easily excited, impatient, fidgety, and unable to sleep at night. Worn-out nerves must be built up, and the vitality of the whole system replenished before relief can come.

"The least bit of noise or sudden jar would nearly drive me crazy, and I was just too fidgety for anything. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Nervine brought me sleep, and after that I got well fast."

Mrs. A. R. MORRELL, Arcola, Ill.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

builds up the nerves, strengthens the brain, and fortifies and refreshes the whole system.

THE TROUBLE IN PADUCAH.

A contemporary seems to be wrought up over the reason some of the best men in Paducah, as a rule,
do not want and refuse public office, and
if by chance they are inveigled into it, resign as soon as they fully realize what they are in for. The principal reason is that a good business man cannot afford to dabble in local politics to any great extent. There are too many conflicting elements in the
make-up of Paducah's population,
and to please one is to offend another.
To hold office in Paducah is a serious handicap to a man's business, is trying to his nerves, and sooner or later,
if he has any conscience at all, becomes thoroughly disgusting to him.

In Paducah under Democratic machine rule a public office is in a way a private snap for those who want the office. If a man does not want a private snap, but prefers to keep far from the maddening crowd and attend to his private business, he will not try to hold office as it is held under the Democrats. If he does hold office he is expected to put his relatives or partion-lar friends on the police force, in the fire departments or in some other office, and in return for such favors to vote to put the other officials' relatives in, too. The men who get out and do the work at the polls must be looked after, and so must their friends and relatives. When the city has to buy anything, it must be bought of some member of the municipal board, some other official, or some relative of either, or some one who stands in with the gang. If a contract is to be let, it is usually managed so it goes to some relative of the powers that be, or to some member of the clique
who gets it because of his political services, instead of because by letting it to him, the people will be getting

the best there is to be had for the money.

Whenever any project for the benefit of the public as a whole or the advancement of the city comes up in the boards, there are always cloth-hoppers to appear and protest, professing with persistent arrogance that they are the people, and must be obeyed.
If an application for a saloon license is made, often a public official is buttonholed by first one faction and then the other, and assured by both that they represent the sentiment of the community, and their wishes must be respected. If the man is a business man, he is confronted with the possibility of losing friends and business whichever way he votes. If the public needs a new sidewalk somewhere, or a new street opened, as soon as the question comes up some of the property owners who would have to pay for the improvement hasten to the official with the protest that the city
does not need the improvement, that they are already tax-ridden and unable to stand the expense. He must vote against it. No one takes sufficient interest to urge the improvement on behalf of the public,
and the official, not desiring to displease the kickers, votes against the improvement, and thinks he has done
his duty.

If a man wants to purchase a franchise that would give the people as a whole additional conveniences, when it comes up before the august municipal bodies some one is apt to raise a protest because such a concern would reduce his sales and hurt his business. If it is rumored that the city intends to compel people to connect with the sewerage, as all other cities
do within a short time after sewerage is built, the officials are besieged
by a class of unprogressive, ignorant,
selfish property owners who whine that they are not able to do it. If a stock law is talked of, a great disturbance is raised by our country consins who have come to town, and want to make the city as near like the country
as possible as a reminder of old times.
They want the benefits of city life as well as those of country life, combined. They talk about the widow and orphan, say they represent the people, and all the time are only thinking how much it will save them
to continue to turn their cows out to disgrace the city's appearance, and to feed on somebody else's flowers, grass or shrubbery.

In short, in everything that comes up in Paducah seeking to advance and improve the city, there is a class to oppose it and make most intelligent men disgusted with public life, and convince them by the number of friends they lose and the amount of business they are deprived of, that they will be more prosperous and happy in private life. Thus the officials will always be left largely to the politicians, the men who have a purpose,
and who are there to keep their relatives in fat jobs, or assist them in gouging the city. They have nothing to lose, and everything to gain.
They may lose friends, but they can afford it. When anything comes up that provokes a disagreement, instead of taking sides with those who are for the welfare of the whole people and the advancement of Paducah, they are for doing whatever will be most benefit them personally. Not that they do anything dishonest, let it be understood. They simply take advantage of the opportunities that come to them as public officers. Instances of it can be found today, could have been found yesterday, or ten years ago. There are good men now and always in public office, no matter what their politics
may be, but discussing the question
from an impartial standpoint, and applying the law of generalities, we find the above state of affairs to exist.

As long as the chronic kickers and selfish, unprogressive men are allowed to sway the men in office, and threaten or impair a man's private business because of his public acts,

just so long will it be impossible to get our best citizens to hold office in Paducah, especially the offices that offer no remuneration.

A Kentucky judge has declared unconstitutional the law relating to peddlers. In one of the counties some peddlers from another state fought a case for doing business without a license, and won it. The court decided that such a license is an interference with inter-commerce law, and while peddlers in our own state can be made to pay a license, those from another state can come here and peddle for nothing.

The objections some of the Democratic papers are raising to President Roosevelt's visit to the south is that he will win over the southern people, as he has everyone else. They don't want the Democratic party and the people of the south to admire
the president.

It is about time some one was doing something towards repairing
the sidewalks on Broadway. The general council has had ample time
in which to have thoroughly investigated it and made some definite announcement of its course.

One of the councilmen claims that the water question is one that should not worry the people of Paducah.
"Kentuckians, you know," he declared, "don't use a great deal of water for drinking purposes anyhow."

The grand jury in Memphis is up against it. Instead of its making others tell what they know, they are making the grand jurors tell what they know, and it seems to be a great deal that they would rather not know.

Those who were in doubt as to whether Mayor Yeiser issued that se-loun order could easily have found out yesterday if he had gone down town.

What became of that statement of the financial condition of the city that was promised so many times and so long ago?

It looks as if the council is going to force muddy water down the throats
of the people for all time to come.

The youngster returned to his books
today, and was no doubt glad to do it.

RATER IS HERE.

TOMORROW HE WILL RE-RATE
PADUCAH FOR INSURANCE
— UNDERWRITERS.

Mr. Varmer Gray, of Louisville, arrived today to begin the work of re-rating the city. He is sent by the board of underwriters, and he will apply the new scientific rating in Paducah and doubtless make many changes here.

He will begin work in the morning.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Frederick Hendon, city, aged 22,
to Ella May Clark, city, aged 18.
It will make the first marriage of both.

John Williamson, colored, aged 26, of the city, and Roberson Williamson of the city, aged 28. It will make the second marriage of the groom and the first of the bride.

SHOT AT SALOON DOOR.

Dickinson, Tex., Sept. 8.—Joseph Kersch was assassinated as he started into the rear door of a saloon. The murderer fired two loads of buckshot
into his heart from an upstairs window and made his escape. Kersch was a prominent Mason, and there is much excitement.

BOARD OF HEALTH

A Reorganization to be Effected This Week.

President Robertson to Issue a Call
About Wednesday.

There has been talk over since the election of the new members of the board of health of immediately reorganizing the board but the re-organization will not be effected before
Wednesday, according to President
Jeff Robertson.

Health Officer Graves and President
Robertson have been working hard
for some time to secure the election of members to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of three members and it was through their efforts that the elections were held by the two boards. It was suggested that the reorganization be effected tonight, but President Robertson thinks this is too near the first of the month, and fears that a quorum can not be procured.

"When we do meet," he said, "we do not want any delay, and want to re-organize and complete the election on that night. This I think will be done about Wednesday or a day or two later. I will not issue a call for tonight but will make it later in the week."

There will be several important matters to consider after the board is again on its feet, one being the water question, the securing of a filter for the waterworks intake pipe.

The new members of the board are Drs. Horace Rivers and C. H. Brothers and Mr. Jesse Gilbert, the druggist.

The board membership is Drs.
Robertson, Brothers, Rivers and Messrs. Pat O'Brien, Charles Graham and Jesse Gilbert.

WESTERN UNION OFFICIALS.

A CAR LOAD OF PROMINENT ONES DUE THROUGH HERE.

A party of prominent officials of the Western Union Telegraph company will pass through Paducah today in a private car en route south. There are in the party Mr. B. Brooks, of New York, general superintendent of the eastern division; Mr. C. H. Bristol, of New York, general superintendent of construction; Mr. C. D. Sherman, of New York, general foreman; J. C.
Berclay, of New York, electrical engineer of the entire system; S. R.
Crowder, of Richmond, Va., electrician
of the eastern division; Mr. J.
Compton, of Nashville, superintendent of the Tenth district, eastern division, and Mr. O. E. Rafford, of
New York, Mr. Brooks' secretary.

The eastern division of the Western Union was recently enlarged to a great extent by having the southern division added to it, and Mr. Brooks and party are now going over it on an inspection tour.

DECISION NOT HEARD FROM.

Up to press time none of the interested persons had received any information as to the decision of Judge White in the railroad injunction cases argued before him at Bardwell a few days ago by attorneys for the railroad and property owners
from Paducah.

A New Zealand Geyser.

A new giant geyser of Rotomahana,
N. Z., is attracting attention. A mass of boiling water half an acre in extent rises in a great dome, from which a column of water and stones rises to 300 feet, while immense columns of steam ascend as far as can be seen.

olist ohnroh morning and night.

The Epworth League of the Broadway Methodist ohnroh was led last evening by Mr. William Brew, a visitor from Illinois. He made an earnest talk, and was heard with interested attention.

Excellent congregations were in attendance at the ohnrebes yesterday,
the day being especially fine. With a few exceptions the regular services were held by the respective pastors.

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton being still absent from the city, there was only the communion service in the morning held at the First Christian chnroh.

Archdeacon M. M. Benton of Louisville held service morning and night
at Grace Episcopal chnroh, preaching
two able and thoughtful sermons.

IN POLICE COURT.

ALLEGED FUGITIVE MURDERER
ARRAIGNED IN COURT THIS MORNING.

Andrew Ferrer, alias Lawrence Anderson, colored, supposed to be the fugitive murderer wanted in Honne Terre, Ind., was arraigned this morning before Judge Sanders and ordered held sixty days unless sooner released by order of court. A requisition has been applied for.

Denny Fletcher and James White,
colored boys, were fined $1 and costs
each for using insulting language.

John Williamson, colored, was fined
$1 and costs for a breach of the peace.

The case against Mary Pnlen for malicious cutting and the one against Cora Hunt for a breach of the peace
were partially heard and left open.

Enlan Jones and Tom Jackson
were fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Tom Clerk was fined $1 and costs
for a plain drunk.

CRUSADE AGAINST FIGHT.

LOUISVILLE MINISTERS TO DRAFT AN APPEAL TO
GOV. BECKHAM.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 8.—All the Louisville ministers notified their congregations yesterday that a mass meeting would be held this week to take action looking to the prevention of the fight between McGovern and Young Corbett, scheduled for September 22. At this meeting a petition will be drawn up for presentation to Gov. Beckham asking him to stop the fight. The date of the meeting will be decided tomorrow, when the ministers meet in response to a call sent out by the Y. M. C. A. of Louisville.

Told of President McKinley.

Dr. P. M. Rixey recalls that when the president's mother sat down for the first time to a White House dinner,
what seemed to impress her most was
the prodigal supply of cream, and she commented on its abundance, and then added:

"Well, William, at last I know what they mean when they speak of the cream of society."

The president laughed. "I admit,"
said he, "that there seems to be an extravagant array of cream on the table,
but you know, mother, we can afford to keep a cow, now."

Peach-Growing in Connecticut.

Connecticut is getting to be a great peach-growing state, according to J.
H. Hiele of South Glastonbury. The state this year will probably market
1,000,000 bushels, which is doing pretty well for rocky and bleak New England.

He Doesn't Like the System.
It seems a committee of Spanish
statesmen will pick a wife for King Alfonso.

"Whose wife?"

"Oh, you don't understand. This committee of Spanish grandees will select a princess who for political and other reasons would make a satisfactory wife for the young king."

"What are the other reasons?"

"Why, the usual reasons. Age, beauty, intelligence."

"And color?"

"Of course."

"Well, who picks the committee?"

"The committee is a committee of eminent Spaniards who stand high in the kingdom."

"And are they good judges of what's pleasing?"

"They are good judges of diplomatic and political matters, and that's the first consideration."

"Well, excuse me from being a kieg
if I've got to have a wife picked out for me by a lot of old fossilized hi-delgos who don't know a pretty girl
from a green olive and whose only idea is to get one with a political pull. Poor little Alfonso!"

Dust-Borne Diseases.

In the discussion at the recent congress of surgeons in Berlin on the first aid to the wounded on the battlefield it was brought out by Burns, Hartlemaann and others that the danger in modern warfare is not so much from primary infection by the smallceller projectile of rapid fire rifles
as from secondary infection by contamination of the wound from the clothing or the dust of the battlefield. The effort of the field surgeon is therefore more to exclude septic
and tetanus germs than to disinfect
the wound, but to come nearer home,
the danger of dust is emphasized by the report that New York City has over 450 street sweepers on the sick list with diseases due to the inhalation of infectious dust. A number of affections are so commonly conveyed in dust as to merit the designation of "dust diseases." Of these cerebrospinal meningitis is of frequent occurrence in cities during the spring months.—American Medicine.

She Might Have Been Right.

Archbishop Ryan recently visited a small parish in the mining district of Schuylkill county, Pa., for the purpose of administering the sacrament of confirmation. In examining a class he asked one poor, nervous, frightened little girl what matrimony was, and she answered that it was "a state of terrible torment which those who enter it are compelled to undergo for a time to prepare them for a brighter
and better world."

"No, no," remonstrated the pastor,
"that isn't matrimony, that's the definition for purgatory."

"Leave her alone," said the archbishop, with a twinkle in his eye,
"maybe she's right. What do you or I know about it?"

German Marriage Love.

In Germany when a woman marries she becomes very much her husband's property. Any independence she may ever be said to have had is now given up, for her husband is indeed her lord and master. He can compel her to work and to do anything that is lawful for woman to do, and if he proves hard and unkind she has no relief or redress except in public opinion. The property which was hers before marriage becomes her husband's, and he can dispose of it according as he sees fit, even in the face of her opposition.
Supposing that the pair should be divorced, the husband retains the wife's
money.

When Memories Faded.

A few days ago a New York reporter had occasion to write a paragraph about Archibald Ross Colquhoun, the well-known English traveler and engineer. The reporter was told that after
Mr. Colquhoun's name the letters "M.
I. C. E." (member of the Institute of Civil Engineers) should be placed.

"That's easy to remember," thought the young journalist. "M. I. C. E. spells 'mice.' Can't forget that."
But the disadvantage of systems of mnemonics was once again illustrated,
for when the reporter's copy was turned in the letters after Mr. Colquhoun's name were "M. A. T. S."

Natural Wealth of New Mexico.
The population of New Mexico is now 195,000, which is more than double what it was ten years ago. In his last report Gov. Otero says the territory is capable of supporting a population of 6,000,000.

AN OLD WAR.

PRETTY NEAR TIME TO STOP.

Wouldn't it make your friend mad to tell her she was in reality a drunkard, but many women are drunkards unconsciously from the use of coffee, which wrecks their nervous systems, and they seem unable to reform.

A lady in Philadelphia, Pa., was very badly affected by coffee, causing her to have nervous prostration, and she finally woke to the fact that she was in reality a coffee drunkard. Her doctor had told her that she must give up coffee, but she seemed unable to do it.

One day she read an advertisement about Postum Food Coffee and thought she would give it a trial. She says: "Coffee had such a strong hold on me that at first I did not make it all Postum, but added a tablespoonful of coffee. After awhile I quit putting coffee in at all, and soon found I felt much better. Continued use stopped my headaches and biliousness, and I soon noticed that my nervousness had evidently left me for good. Now I would not use anything else, and the smell of coffee makes me sick. "I am using your Grape-Nuts also, and think it a wonderful food. I lately cured an attack of indigestion by eating nothing but Grape-Nuts and drinking Postum for two weeks, and now I can eat solid food and feel no distress." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

MANY VACCINATED.

DOCTORS BUSY GETTING CHILDREN READY FOR SCHOOL.

A number of the local physicians are busy today vaccinating the school pupils and perhaps the busiest one of them all is Dr. J. S. Troutman, of Mecheniesburg, who is in a territory where little vaccination, comparatively, has been done.

This year all the pupils, pursuant to an order of the board made since the closing of the summer session, have to carry a good, strong marked vaccination scar before they will be taken into the schools and many have not been vaccinated at all and have to have the operation performed before they are permitted to enter. A great deal of time was heretofore consumed right in the most interesting portion of the school term and right where an interruption is most strongly felt, by the smallpox scare which of course necessitated the vaccination of many pupils all of whom had to be examined by the teachers and this, of course, took time and interfered with the school work. All the doctors have done more or less vaccination today and the school teachers and officers are hurrying the matter in order to suffer as little delay as possible.

AFTER THE COWS.

THE "COWBOYS" ARE OUT MAKING MANY ARRESTS.

Marshal Crow desires to have the public know that the cow catchers, appointed by the mayor by authority of the council and board of aldermen, are now at work taking up cows that are found straying about during the night. "We have taken up several bovines," he said, "but have yet had no trials. The owners always come after their property, but for fear that some may not know that the cows are being taken up and consequently will not know where to look if their cows are arrested, I wish to have it known that the cow catchers have begun operations, and intend to enforce the law to the letter."

COUNTY COURT.

A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT ORDERS MADE TODAY.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot held county court this morning and the following business was transacted.

The appraisements of the estates of R. M. Beckman, Felix Gabriel and J. Will Fisher were ordered recorded.

Settlements in the cases of T. T. Jones, Vittora Proctor and Green Bright, were ordered to lay over for exceptions.

In the case of George O. Wallace and others, brought by state Revenue Agent Frank Lucas to force the payment of a tax, the defendants filed a demurrer to the plaintiff's petition.

In the case against Holcomb-Lobb Co., suit for taxes against the steamer Lyda and barges an agreed order was filed assessing the steamer at $2,000 and the barges at $4,000 with a 20 per cent. payment to Lucas.

In the case against the Ayer and Lord Tie company the motion of the defendants to transfer to the U. S. court was overruled, and the case continued.

An agreed order was filed in the tax case against George Rock who by virtue of the order pays taxes on $1,600 worth of bonds he holds in the Graves County Water and Light Co.

The case against the Evansville Brewing Association, J. M. Perkins and B. Starks were dismissed.

A road was ordered opened between the lands of Charles Pierce and F. F. Gholson to a point in the Hinkleville road, and the owners of the property ordered to remove their fences in order that the road might be opened.

The commissioner's report in the Lovelaceville and Florence Station road case was filed.

Could Not Get Married.
A young woman in Paris who recently became engaged to be married applied for her official papers and discovered to her horror that a mistake as to her sex had been made and she had been put down on the register as a boy. She also discovered that the police, believing her to be a boy, had a warrant for her arrest for not presenting herself for military service. She will now have to prove her identity, and it will take about six months to rectify matters.

STRANGLED TO DEATH

Colored Woman Expired Very Suddenly Last Night.

A Colored Child Also Died Without the Attention of a Doctor.

Coroner Peal was called to hold two inquests yesterday. One was over the remains of Esther Montague, a corpulent woman apparently about 60 years of age, who choked to death about 8 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Dora Hughes, 1225 Jones street. She had been ill from a throat ailment for some time, and a conchoidal spell seized her last night and strangled her before assistance could reach her. The verdict was death from natural causes.

Lillie May Howell, colored, aged 5 weeks, died yesterday at 1314 North Fourteenth street, at the home of Narcissus Ghosou. The inquest developed the fact that the child died from cholera infantum.

21 YEARS A DYSPEPTIC.

R. H. Foster, 318 South Second street, Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

REPRESENTATIVES TO GRAND LODGE.

The local Odd Fellows have chosen the following representatives to attend the grand lodge at Owensboro October 14: Magnus, Charles Harbart, Dan Givlin, H. H. Evans, Wm. Morgan, Charles Horton and Robert Arnold; Ingleside, A. F. Bryant, A. H. Mayer, U. S. Walston, P. J. Beehnbangh, B. A. Robertson, J. L. Powell and Fred Heilbron.

GROUP.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Hallard's Horehound Syrup—the child will cry for it—and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Hallard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental hotel, Olanette, Kansas, says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, 'tired I did, and I got a bottle of Hallard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposed' of my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de troth too." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

DEVoured BY WORMS.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Wormfuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Mrs. C. E. Odum has filed suit for divorce from B. W. Odum at Mayfield, alleging cruel treatment. They were married in Weakley county, Tenn., forty-five years ago. She asks an attachment for $3,000 cash to be supposed to have on his person.

COUNTY ROADS.

Supervisor Bert Johnson reports that the county road work is all over except small repairs, which were necessitated by the recent rain. The damage to the roads was not great anywhere, although it was at first feared it would be.

BUILDING A CUP DEFENDER.

Hristol, R. I., Sept. 8.—The members of the New York Yacht club have opened negotiations with the Herreshoff's with the purpose of placing an order for a defender of the American cup. One conference between John Herreshoff and representatives of the syndicate being formed with J. P. Morgan at the head has been held and another meeting is planned for New York in a few days. It is learned that the new craft will have speed in excess of either the Columbia or Constitution. There is already considerable activity about the Herreshoff shops. New buildings are soon to be constructed one of which is to be used as a building room where the frames of the new boat will be shaped. From this shop it is intended to erect a covered passage through which the frames are to be conveyed to the boat shops across the street.

Woe of Smokers in France.

Smokers who find beams and balks in their tobacco, and the general public who tries and tries again to strike government matches, will be glad to learn that they do not spend their money in vain. If they do not derive much personal benefit from their purchases at the tobacconists, the fact remains that they are doing their duty as good citizens and adding considerably to the revenue of this country. Last year the profit on matches alone was 23,799,898 francs, the quantities sold being 36,295,000,000 wood matches and 885,000,000 wax ones. The profit on tobacco, in all its forms, during the same period was 333,872,825 francs. And yet the budget shows a deficit.

How What He Might Expect.

Three Philadelphia men determined to rob a house. On the night decided on they gathered in front of the building. One of them entered and started up the stairs. He had his boots on, and, when near the landing, his boots made a noise on the stairs. A female voice called out from one of the rooms: "You go right down stairs and take those boots off. I'm tired of having to clean up mud and dirt after you come up here with your boots on. You march right down and take them off." The burglar fled.

Texas Editor on a Variety of Boy.

An insolent, unreliable rascal of a boy is about as disagreeable an animal as walks this earth, and everybody estimates him pretty correctly but his parents, who invariably regard him as a future statesman or philosopher, and the man who attempts to discipline him in the smallest way, no matter in how friendly a spirit he does it, is usually rewarded for his pains by the loss of his parents' friendship. The mantle of parental love is broad enough to cover any fault a child may have.—Cameron (Tex.) Inquirer.

A Christian Spirit.

Churehes which are under the burden of a heavy debt may well envy the congregation of St. Luke's at Yarmouth. The clergyman, the organist, the choir, the organ blower, the bell ringer, all contribute their services, and the total cost of carrying on the church is just $7 a week, while the church, a new one, has been built by voluntary contributions.

KIDNAPPED

THE ADVENTURES OF DAVID BALFOUR IN THE YEAR 1751

BY ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

"Aye, but Ardshiel is the captain of the clan," said he, which seemed to clear my mind. "Ye see, David, he that was all his life a great man, and come of the blood and bearing the name of kings, is now brought down to live in a French town like a poor and private person. He that had four hundred swabs at his whistle I have seen with these eyes of mine buying butter in the market place and taking it home in a kale leaf. This is not only a pain, but a disgrace to us of his family and clan. There are the bairns forby, the children and the hope of Ayrin, that must be learned their letters and how to hold a sword in that far country. Now the tenants of Ayrin have to pay a rent to King George, but their hearts are staunch; they are true to their chief, and what with love and a bit of pressure and may be a threat or two the poor folks scrape up a second rent for Ardshiel. Well, David, in the hand that carries it." And he struck the belt about his body so that the guineas rang.

"Do they pay both?" cried I.
"Aye, David, both," says he.
"What! two rents?" I repeated.
"Aye, David," said he. "I told a different tale to you captain man, but this is the truth of it. And it's wonderful to me how little pressure is needed. But that's the handiwork of my good kinsman and my father's friend, James of the Glens—James Stewart that is—Ardshiel's half brother. He it is that got the money in and does the management." This was the first time that I heard the name of that James Stewart, who was afterwards so famous at the time of his hanging. But I took little heed at the moment, for all my mind was occupied with the generosity of these poor highlanders.

"I call it noble," I cried. "I'm a Whig, or little better, but I call it noble."
"Aye," said he, "ye're a Whig, but ye're a gentleman, and that's what does it. Now if ye were one of the cursed race of Campbell ye would gnash your teeth at a poor fellow of it. If ye were the Red Fox? And at that name his teeth shut together, and he ceased speaking. I have seen many a grim face, but never a grimmer than Alan's when he had named the Red Fox.

"And who is the Red Fox?" I asked, dazed, but still curious.
"Who is he?" cried Alan. "Well, and I'll tell you that. When the men of the clan were broken at Culloden and the good cause went down, and the horses rode over the fells in the best of the north, Ardshiel had to flee like a poor deer upon the mountain—he and his lady and his bairns. A fair job he had of it before we got him shipped, and while he still lay in the heather the English rogues that could not come to his life were striking at his rights. They stripped him of his powers; they stripped him of his lands; they plucked the weapons from the hands of his clansmen that had borne arms for thirty centuries; aye, and the very clothes off their backs—so that it's now a sin to wear a tartan plaid, and a man may be cast into a jail if he has but a kilt about his legs. One thing they could not do. That was the love the clansmen bore their chief. These guineas are the proof of it. And now in these steps a man, a Campbell, reshedded Colin of Glenne—" "Is that him you call the Red Fox?" said I.

"Will ye bring me his brush?" cried Alan fiercely. "Ah, that's the man. In no steps and gets papers from King George, to be so called king's factor on the lands of Ayrin. And at first he sings small, and is his fellow well met with Sherrains—that's James of the Glens, my chieftain's agent. But by and by, that came to his ears that I have just told you; how the poor commons of Ayrin, the farmers and the crofters and the bairns were wringing their very plaids to get a second rent and sent it over seas for Ardshiel and his poor bairns. What was it ye call it, when I told ye?"

"I called it noble, Alan," said I.
"And you little better than a common Whig!" cries Alan. "But when it came to Colin Roy, the black Campbell blood in him ran wild. He sat gnashing his teeth at the wine table. What! should a Stewart get a bite of bread, and him not be able to prevent it? Ah! Red Fox! if ever I hold you at a gun's end, the Lord have pity upon ye!" Alan stopped to swallow down his anger. "Well, David, what does he do? He declares all the farms to let. And thinks he, in his black heart, I'll soon get other tenants that'll overbid these Stewarts and Maccolls and Macrobs (for these are all names in my clan, David), and then," thinks he, 'Ardshiel will have to hold his bonnet on a French roadside!'

"Well," said I, "what followed?"

Alan laid down his pipe, which he had long since suffered to go out, and set his two hands upon his knees.
"Aye," said he, "ye'll never guess that! For these same Stewarts, and Maccolls, and Macrobs (that had two rents to pay, one to King George by stark force and one to Ardshiel by natural kind), offered him a better price than any Campbell in all broad Scotland; and far he sent seeking them—as far as to the sides of the Clyde and the cross of Edinburgh—seeking, and leeching, and begging them to come, where there was a Stewart to be starved and a red-tailed bond of a Campbell to be pleased!"

"Well, Alan," said I, "that is a strange story, and a fine one too. And Whig as I may be, I am glad the man was beaten."
"Him beaten?" echoed Alan. "It's little ye ken of Campbells and less of Red Fox. Him beaten? No; nor will he till his blood's on the hillside! But if the day comes, David, man, that I can find time and leisure for a bit of hunting there grows not enough heather in all Scotland to hide him from my vengeance!"

"Man, Alan," said I, "ye are neither very wise nor very Christian to blow off so many words of anger. They will do the man ye call the Fox no harm, and yourself as good. Tell me your tale plainly out. What did he next?"
"And that's a good observe, David," said Alan. "Troth and indeed they will do him no harm, the more's the pity! And barring that about Christianity (of which my opinion is quite otherwise), or I would be no Christian, I am much of your mind."

"Opinion here or opinion there," said I, "it's a kint thing that Christianity forbids revenge."
"Ah," said he, "it's well seen it was a Campbell taught ye! It would be a convenient world for them and their sort if there was no such thing as a lad and a gun behind a heather bush! But that's nothing to the point. That is what he did."

"Aye," said I, "come to that."
"Well, David," said he, "since he could not be rid of the royal commons by fair means, he swore he would be rid of them by foul. Ardshiel was to starve; that was the thing he aimed at. And since then that fell him in his exile would not be brought out right or wrong, he would drive them out. Therefore he sent for lawyers and papers and red-coats to stand at his back. And the kindly folk of that country must all pack and tramp, every father's son and of his father's house, and out of the place where he was bred and fed, and played when he was a callant. And who are to succeed them? Barred-legit beggars! King George is to whistle for his rents; he must do with less; he can spread his butter thinner; what enters Red Colin? If he can hurt Ardshiel he has his wish; if he can pluck the meat from my chieftain's table, and the bit toys out of his children's hands, he will gang home singing to Glenne!"

"Let me have a word," said I. "Be sure, if they take less rents, be sure government has a finger in the pie. It's not this Campbell's fault, may it be his orders. And if ye killed this Colin tomorrow, what better world ye be? There would be another factor in his shoes as fast as a spur can drive."

"Ye're a good lad in a fight," said Alan, "but, taeen, ye have Whig blood in ye!"

And with this Alan fell into a muse, and for a long time set very sad and silent.

CHAPTER XIII. THE LOSS OF THE BRIG.

It was the spare yard I had got hold of. It was already late at night, and as dark as it ever would be at that season of the year (and that is to say it was still pretty bright), when Hoseason clapped his head into the roundhouse door.

"Here," said he, "come out and see if ye can pilot."

"Is this one of your tricks?" asked Alan.

"Do I look like tricks?" cries the captain. "I have other things to think of—my brig's in danger!"

By the concerned look of his face, and above all by the sharp tones in which he spoke of his brig, it was plain to both of us he was in deadly earnest, and so Alan and I, with no great fear of treachery, stepped on deck.

The sky was clear; it blew hard and was bitter cold; a great deal of daylight lingered, and the moon, which was nearly full, shone brightly.

Altogether it was no such ill night to keep the seas in, and I had begun to wonder what it was that sat so heavily upon the captain, when the brig rising suddenly on the top of a high swell, he pointed and cried to us to look. Away on the lee bow a thing like a fountain rose out of the moonlit sea, and immediately after we heard a low sound of roaring.

"What do ye call that?" asked the captain gloomily.

"The sea breaking on a reef," said Alan. "And now ye ken where it is, and what better would ye have?"

"Aye," said Hoseason, "if it was the only one."

And sure enough just as he spoke there came a second fountain farther to the south.

"There!" said Hoseason. "Ye see for yourself. If I had kent of these reefs, if I had had a chart, or if Shuan had been spared, it's not sixty guineas—no, not six hundred, would have made me risk my brig in sic a stoneyard! But you, sir, that was to pilot us, have ye never a word?"

"I'm thinking," said Alan, "these'll be what they call the Torran rocks."

"Are there many of them?" says the captain.

"Truly, sir, I am nae pilot," said Alan, "but it sticks in my mind there are ten miles of them."

Mr. Riach and the captain looked at each other.

"There's a way through them, I suppose?" said the captain.

"Doableness," said Alan; "but where? But it somehow runs in my mind once more that it is clearer under the hand."

"So?" said Hoseason. "We'll have to haul our wind then, Mr. Riach; we'll have to come as near in about the end of Mull as we can take her, sir, and even then we'll have the land to keep the wind off us and that stoney yard on our lee. Well, we're in for it now and may as well crack on."

With that he gave an order to the steersman and sent Riach to the fore-top. There were only five men on deck, counting the officers. These were all that were fit, or at least both fit and willing, for their work, and two of these were hurt. So, nae say, it fell to Mr. Riach to go aloft, and he sat there looking out and hailing the deck with news of all he saw.

"The sea to the south is thick," he cried, and then after awhile, "it does seem clearer by the land."

"Well, sir," said Hoseason to Alan, "we'll try your way of it. But I think I might as well trust to a blind fiddler. Pray God ye're right."

"Pray God I am!" says Alan to me.

"But where did I hear it? Well, well, it will be as it must."

As we got nearer to the turn of the hand the reefs began to be seen here and there on our very path, and Mr. Riach sometimes cried down to us to change the course. Sometimes indeed none too soon, for the reef was so close on the brig's weatherboard that when a sea burst upon it the lighter sprays fell upon her deck and wetted us like rain.

The brightness of the night showed as these perils as clearly as by day which was perhaps the more alarming. It showed me, too, the face of the captain as he stood by the steersman, now on one foot, now on the other, and sometimes blowing in his hands, but still listening and looking and as steady as steel. Neither he nor Mr. Riach had shown well in the fighting, but I saw they were brave in their own trail, and admired them all the more because I found Alan very white.

"Ochone, David," said he, "this is no the kind of death I fancy."

"What, Alan?" I cried, "ye're not afraid?"

"No," said he, wetting his lips, "but ye'll allow yourself, it's a cold ending."

By this time, now and then sheering to one side or the other to avoid a reef, but still haggard the wind and the land, we had got around Iona and begun to come alongside Mull. The tide of the tail of the land ran very strong and threw the brig about. Two hands were put to the helm, and Hoseason himself would sometimes lead a help; and it was strange to see three strong men throw their weight upon the tiller, and it, like a living thing, struggle against and drive them back. This would have been the greater danger had not the sea been for some while free of obstacles. Mr. Riach besides announced from the top that he saw clear water ahead.

"Ye were right," said Hoseason to Alan. "Ye have saved the brig, sir; I'll mind that when we come to clear accounts." And I believe he not only meant what he said, but would have done it; so high a place did the Covenant hold in his affections.

GOES ON THE ROAD

Mr. H. J. Foppe Signs With the Down
in Hopkins Company.

Where Some of the Show People Known in Paducah Are
This Season.

THEATRICAL NEWS IN GENERAL.

Mr. H. J. Foppe, for several years past with the Rhodes-Burford Furniture company, has signed with the "Down in Hopkins" company, and leaves Paducah September 23 for a tour of the circuit the company will play. The play was written by a Louisville newspaper man, and is based on the mining troubles in Hopkins county. The most prominent character will be the organizer, which part will be taken by Mr. James Wood, the well known union man, of Central City. The company will rehearse for a week before taking the road. Mr. Foppe will play the part of a mine owner, and will be stage manager. The company will play Paducah late in the season.

The company is to be a strong one, and the play is said to be one of the best depicting Kentucky life. In selecting Mr. Foppe the management has done well. He is an old hand, and was on the road for several years before he came to Paducah several years ago and managed Ramona park theater before it burned.

Divorce and diamonds are out of date as theatrical devices for advertising, and the thing that goes now is a hairbreadth 'scape, or something just as good. So far this season Henrietta Crossman, who is popular in Paducah, has all her sister actresses beaten with this story, which Adolph Klaunder writes for the New York Times: "Henrietta Crossman," says he, "is a medicine woman of the Sioux tribe. For she herself has said so—this is the story as she told it: 'My father, Major Crossman, was a well known Indian fighter, and I was born on a reservation. My mother once saved the life of a squaw of the Sioux tribe from a terrible death, and in order to reward my mother I was made a medicine woman of the tribe, and invested with all the rights and insignia of that dignified office.'"

"Needless to add, Miss Crossman does not wear war paint or indulge in snake dances."

"The Little Outcast" opened its season in Marseilles, Ill., Saturday night, with Miss May Stockton, formerly of the English Stock company, in the title role. Miss Stockton's many friends in Paducah will be pleased to learn that she has secured an excellent place and is being featured in all the posters and papers, and it is predicted by managers in Chicago will make a hit and become one of the best known of American actresses. The company goes West and will tour the Pacific coast. It is one of Carpenter's productions and Mr. W. F. Harmon, also formerly of the English Stock company, is in the Eastern company of the same name.

A lively time is expected at the Bill Posters' meeting at Owensboro today. It is a called meeting to arrange for the meeting of the National Bill Posters' association, but a number of other things are to come up, among them several disputes in regard to certain cities claimed by certain bill posters. One of these involves the local agency, managed by Mr. Will Utterback. It seems two men claim Madisonville, one of them being the local agency.

The Arnold Stock company closed its engagement here Saturday night with a generous dose of blood and thunder, "The James Boys." There was a large audience, the house being about the largest Saturday night house on record at The Kentucky, and the people seemed to be pleased with the thrilling climaxes resulting from plots and counterplots. The company went from here to Little Rock, Ark.

Helen Plagore, who was soprano in the Wilbur Opera company last season, is now at the head of that organization, Miss Mand Daniels having given it up and taken the management of "Jack and the Beanstalk." Miss Sophie Burnham, who was leading prima donna of the Wilburs, is in vanderbilt this year and was heard by a number of Paducah people this summer in the Northern cities.

Mr. Wm. Malone, formerly manager of the La Belle park theater, and later stage manager at The Kentucky, has declined an offer to go to the Pacific coast with the McDonald Stock company of Nashville.

The minstrels will be late coming this season to The Kentucky. The first will be Ward's in November. Al Fields and West will be here later on.

Miss Lillian Bowen closes her engagement in "The Scout's Revenge" in Louisville this week and goes with another company.

Mr. Harry Driscoll, who played in summer stock here one season, is in "The Burglar and the Wait" this season.

Mr. Wilbur Held, a well known Paducah boy, is in "A Fight for Millions" this season.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

THAT LAEVISON'S PALE ALE
AND IRON TONE ARE NON INTOXICATING.

Another victory has been scored by the A. M. Laevison bottling works regarding their mild drinks. Mr. F. Melton, the well known merchant of Mayfield, Ky., who has been handling "Iron-Tone" and "Pale Ale," manufactured by A. M. Laevison and Co., was tried before Judge Webb, of Mayfield, day before yesterday on the charge of dispensing intoxicating liquors in violation of the local option law. After hearing the evidence and testing the "Pale Ale" and "Iron-Tone," Judge Webb immediately dismissed the case, and informed Mr. Melton the drinks were non-intoxicating and he could sell them at his pleasure. This is further conclusive proof added to the heretofore favorably rendered decisions holding Laevison's drinks non-intoxicating.

ANOTHER NEW STEWARD.

MR. C. R. POPE ARRIVES TO TAKE CHARGE AT THE PALMER.

Mr. C. R. Pope is the new steward at the Palmer house, the fourth in the past several months. Mr. Murray Clark, of West Baden, Ind., arrived last Monday to take the position, but failed to show up for work afterwards and Mr. Pope was sent for. He came from Kansas City, and is highly recommended.

Owing to the large amount of business transacted over the Illinois Central freight depot telephone, No. 25, another phone by the same number has been put in to be used when the other is busy.
